And if the soul is to know itself it must look into a soul:
the stranger and enemy, we've seen him in the mirror.

George Mendoza

THE SHIELD

Someone told me
It's all happening at the zoo.
I do believe it,
I do believe it's true.

1971

The monkeys stand for honesty,

Giraffes are insincere ...

Zebras are reactionaries,

Antelopes are missionaries,

And the elephants are kindly but They're dumb.

Orangutans are skeptical
Of changes in their cages,

Pigeons plot in secrecy,

What a gas! You gotta come see
At the zoo.

STUDENT LIFE

Overcome by the ache of challenge, the agony of self-discipline finally becomes unbearable. I must escape, if only for a moment; lose a part of myself to fantasy. Probing through a million dimensions my mind wanders, entering secret, unseen worlds. I will seek to fulfill my dreams and dare them to work for me.

Student Leadership

When I was a young man coming up my elders told me the future belongs to the youth and I believed it yes I did and I worked to change the world.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Dropping back with the ball ripe in my palm grained and firm as the flesh of a living charm, I taper and coil myself down, raise arms to fake, running a little, seeing my targets emerge like quail above a wheat field's golden lake.

And as I run and weigh, measure and test, the light kindles on helmets, the angry leap;
but secretly, coolly, as though stretching a hand to his chest,
I lay the ball in the arms of my planning end, as true as metal, as deftly as surgeon's wrist.

In the beginning was the Kickoff.
The ball flew spiralling true into the end zone where it was snagged, neatly hugged by a swivel-hipped back who ran up the field and was smeared.

The game has begun.
The game has been won.
The game goes on.
Long live the game.
Gather and lock tackle and block move, move,
around the arena
and always the beautiful trajectories.

With two 60's stuck on the scoreboard
And two seconds handing on the clock,
The solemn boy in the center of eyes,
Squeezed by silence,
Seeks out the line with his feet,
Soothes his hands along his uniform,
Gently drums the ball against the floor,
Then measures the waiting net,
Raises the ball on his right hand,
Balances it with his left,
Calms it with fingertips,
Breathes,
Crouches
Waits,
And then through a stretching of stillness,
Nudges it upward.

The ball
Slides up and out,
Lands,
Leans,
Wobbles,
Wavers,
Hesitates,
Exasperates,
Plays it coy
Until every face begs with unsounding screams —
And then

And then

And then,
Right before ROAR-UP,
Dives down and through.

Baseball

Catcher reverses his cap, pulls down
Sweaty casque, and squats in the dust:
Pitcher rubs new ball on his pants,
Chewing, puts a jet behind him;
Nods past batter, taking his time.
Batter settles, tugs at his cap:
A spinning ball: step and swing to it,
Caught like a cheek before it ducks
By shivery hickory: socko, baby:
Cleats dig into dust. Outfielder,
On his way, looking over shoulder,
Makes it a triple. A long peg home.

STUDENT ARTISTRY

We have created images in our minds then:
we poured them onto paper.

And we have sung songs and talent flowed through our voices,
... they echo in memories ...

Speeches linger, and the actors'

Looking back:
remember we have performed and created, our artistry lives upon our lips and on our fingertips.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Sometimes I think people were meant to be strangers.
Not to get to know one another,
not to get close enough to damage the heart made older by each new encounter.

But then, someone comes along and changes all that.
For a while anyway.

HONORS

I stood in the sunshine
(we all stood in the day)
Unitary in our beliefs and casting separate shadows:
Yet a cluster of individuals stood in dignity beneath the splendor of constant sunrises they stood shining separate in the high eminent rays of the sun detached and glowing despite the day:
their warmth reached out and touched me . . .

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

I watched the elephant drying in the early morning. Dark ash turned a chalky silver. The storm of the jungle dawn had come . . . now gone with the approaching sun and I had run in for shelter as the prelude of the downpour descended; yet he lingered seeking no protection beneath the jungle canopy. He caught every cleansing drop recovered from the rains before. I stood and mused over his inborn wisdom. My intelligence and the animal's cunning instinct . . . this borderline in knowledge I am seeking.

CLASSES

Spirit, loyalty, success and defeat are known to all students. Cheering at a football game, mastering the fundamentals of algebra, acting as a representative of Poland in the Model United Nations Club, and getting a part in the school musical are all part of a school year. The banging of lockers, laughing with friends, and dashing to the next class will linger in the memories of all who have walked through the halls of Granger High.

Senior Class Officers

Bettering student involvement, this year's Seniors led the way in promoting such activities as the Senior Ball, Homecoming, and the Senior Assembly. Senior activity was built on the enthusiasm of class officers, President Bob Grant, Vice-President Jeff Jamison, Secretary Jody Littlefield, and Round Table Representative, Kevin Huntington, who launched the class into a year of spirited growth and achievement.

IN MEMORIAM

"The road is long
With many a winding turn,
That leads us to who knows where,
Who knows where,
But I'm strong, strong enough to carry him.
He ain't heavy; he's my brother."
